Mentoring Programs

- The Mentoring Program should be linked to the campuswide effort to establish and maintain a retention conscious campus.
- Without a campuswide focus, participation, and commitment, the Mentoring Program, like all other programs, will have very limited success on a campus.

CODE OF ETHICS/CONSTITUTION

Preamble: We the Men of Distinction in order to become a more productive, positive, well-rounded and distinguished man of academia, social grace and excellence do set forth the standards and measurement of manhood and the precedence which hitherto has been unseen. We commit to and embody the ideas of excellence, uplift, achievement and being men about business.

- He should uphold the integrity and independence of the organization.
- He should avoid impropriety and the appearance of impropriety in all activities.
- He should perform all duties diligently.
- They may engage in extracurricular activities to improve themselves as well as others.
Halifax Community College Mentoring Program: Men of Distinction

Code of Ethics/Constitution

Expectations for Mentors and Mentees

1. He should be expected to participate in activities that contribute to the public good through improvement of himself and others.

2. He should always act in the best interest of the organization and avoid even the appearance of a conflict of interest.

3. Each member and officer should:

   1. Represent the organization with dignity and in a respectful manner.

   2. Strive for continuous improvement and maximize efficiency in his/her job.

   3. Work with others to achieve the common goal of quality service.
1. Members should be responsible citizens of our local, state and national communities. The members support civic projects and community programs that contribute to the improvement of our society and encourage employee participation in these projects and programs.

2. The contract will include a dress code. MOD members will make themselves marketable. Members will not wear hats in buildings or dress in baggy clothes. On Thursdays they will wear shirt and tie. They will represent MOD, Halifax Community College (HCC), and themselves in a distinguished way in a college and in the community.

3. MOD members will go into the public schools to contribute to the community. They will not cheat in school. They will not harass women or be womanizers in the sense of pursuing them in a meaningless way. They will be spiritual, upstanding men in society.

Changes to the Code of Ethics

A Committee & the board of directors may approve any updates or changes to the provisions of this Code and will report any such changes or updates to the Board of Directors. Additionally, any updates or changes to the provisions of this Code must be publicly disclosed in a prompt manner.

Building the Relationship!

- The relationship is built upon the approach that the mentor is a friend and not a teacher or preacher.
- Mentors provide positive support for the mentees positive endeavors. Mentoring not TORMENTORING!
- Mentors and mentees are expected to keep their time commitment and should never pose a safety risk to the youth.
Halifax Community College Mentoring Program: Men of Distinction

Building the Relationship!

• Parents and mentors should work together to be seen as allies and never competitors.
• Research has presented clear and encouraging evidence that a caring relationship between adults and youth, resulting in a wide range of tangible benefits, can be created and supported by mentoring programs like HCC’s.
Halifax Community College Mentoring Program: Men of Distinction
